May Select Morgan Beach As a Special Attorney

It is extremely probable that when Morgan H. Beach retires from the position of United States Attorney for the District of Columbia on August 31 next, he will be retained by the Government as special attorney in the cotton leak cases. The Department of Justice is considering such a move, and it is believed that Mr. Beach will continue in charge of the cases until they are completed and brought to an end.

Some weeks ago Mr. Beach handed in his resignation as district attorney, to take effect on August 31, when he will be succeeded by D. W. Baker. Inasmuch as Mr. Beach will have his hands full at first getting a grasp on the routine work of the office and familiarizing himself with the cases on hand, it is thought that to ask him to jump into the cotton leak cases would be a little too much. For this reason and because he is thoroughly familiar with all the details there, Mr. Beach is likely to be kept.

The papers in the Moore case, which were sent to the Department of Justice by the President on Saturday have reached the department. It is understood, and are now being considered. The President's idea in sending them is to procure the recommendations of the department as to whether or not it would be wise to proceed against Mr. Moore. No information concerning the intentions of the Department of Justice in this matter were obtainable today.

Speculation About Haas Case.

There is much speculation today in legal circles as to what the proceedings before the grand jury will amount to tomorrow, so far as probing the leak in the Government cotton report is concerned. Under the ruling of Justice Wright made Saturday in the proceedings against Moses Haas, the New York broker, it is evident the latter will not answer any questions asked him which might in any way incriminate him so as to lay him liable to indictment in connection with the cotton leak scandal.

What holds back as a broker Haas, it is contended, will obtain in reference to any other hostile witness who may be summoned before the jury to testify. Mr. Haas is under instructions from the court to appear before the grand jury tomorrow and tell whether he ever lived in Washington, and if he were ever employed in the Agriculture Department.

He will, however, be under the ruling of Justice White, not be compelled to say whether or not he knew Edwin Holmes, Jr., or Frederick A. Peckham, because his replies might incriminate him. It is not probable when called to testify tomorrow Mr. Haas will tell anything more pertinent to the inquiry than what he had for breakfast.

Will Get Behind Decision.

When the examination of Broker Haas goes beyond answering questions remotely irrelevant to the subject of the inquiry he will no doubt entrench himself behind Justice Wright's decision and decline to speak on the ground his reply might incriminate him.

Hyde Notifies Friends Of Arrival at Liverpool

John Hyde, former statistician of the Department of Agriculture, has notified his friends at the department of his arrival at Liverpool.

Mr. Hyde by his sudden departure, which followed right on the heels of his resignation as statistician, completely eluded the Secret Service men, who, it is said, had been assigned to watch his movements.

On the day he took his sudden leave from the department he told Secretary Wilson, as well as other officials, that he would remain in Washington indefinitely to be of any services the secret service might require. He said, however, that even when he told the Secretary and his friends this story he had made all arrangements for his passage to Europe.

CASE AGAINST DR. LEON WILL NOT BE DROPPED

Captain Boardman, Chief of Detectives, Is Responsible for This Statement.

Although Samuel Price Williams and his wife, the principal witnesses against Dr. Edward Leon, charged with performing a criminal operation on the woman about ten days ago, have disappeared from the city, and the efforts of the police thus far to apprehend them have proved futile, Captain Boardman stated this morning that the case against the accused physician would not be dropped.

Detective Helan, who investigated the case when it was first reported and arrested Dr. Leon on a warrant sworn out by Dr. Battle, who attended the woman after the operation is said to have been performed, is still looking for Williams and his wife. Dr. Leon was released on $2,000 bond, furnished by his counsel. He disclaims any knowledge of the affair.

Major Sylvester was informed by the authorities at Norfolk, Va., where Williams said he worked in a dry goods store, that the young man was not known there. Inquiry is being made in several other Virginia cities.

ALLEGED JEWEL SWINDLER RETURNED TO WASHINGTON

Detective Baur today telegraphed Captain Boardman that L. Lowenthal, the alleged swindler, who victimized several jewelry firms in Washington by purchasing goods, making the first payment and then selling them, was afterward arrested in Columbus, Ohio, had been given a United States commissioner's hearing and held for the action of the local authorities.

Baur will leave Columbus to come to Washington tonight. The prisoner will probably be brought to this city Wednesday by a deputy United States marshal.

FINED $100 FOR CUTTING WIFE'S HEAD WITH KNIFE

For cutting his wife's head with a carving knife, Isaiah Price was this morning fined $100 by Judge O'Neal. In default of $100, Isaiah will spend the next 180 days in the District Jail.

Last Saturday night Price came home much the worse for liquor. His wife remonstrated with him, and he grabbed a carving knife and slashed her on the head. She was attended by Dr. Robert Cline. Price was arrested shortly after by Policeman Springfield.

WAR VETERAN DIES OF CONSUMPTION

Edward J. Dowling Fought Through Civil War.

POPULAR TREASURY CLERK

Prominent in Grand Army Circles and in Pioneer Council, Sons of Jonadab.

Edward J. Dowling, a clerk in the Treasury Department for more than thirty years, and for many years quartermaster of Lincoln Post, No. 3, 3. A. R., died yesterday morning at 4:45 o'clock at his home, 1150 Eighth street northeast. Four years ago Mr. Dowling was stricken with appendicitis.

He suffered four attacks during the year, which left him in a very weak condition. Later he caught a severe cold, which developed into grip and then into bronchitis, and finally into the disease which resulted in his death.

The deceased was born in Dublin, Ireland, sixty-one years ago. He came to this country when but three years of age. His parents located in New York City, and there he lived until a little over thirty years ago, when he came to this city to accept a position in the Treasury Department.

He was employed in that service continually until his illness made it necessary for him to give up active business pursuits. For many years he has been a clerk in the Sixth Auditor's office of the Postoffice Division of the Treasury.

Great G. A. R. Worker.

Mr. Dowling was at one time secretary to Pioneer Council, Sons of Jonadab. He held the position of secretary of Economy Council, American Legion of Honor, for many years. He had been master of exchequer for Cyrus Castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle, and besides holding the office of quartermaster of Lincoln Post, was a prominent G. A. R. worker at all times.

He enlisted with the Northern army at the beginning of the civil war, and re-enlisted again at the end of three years, serving throughout the entire war. He served as company clerk under General Whitson, who is now stationed at the Soldiers' Home. Mr. Dowling saw active service in the battles of Bull Run, Gettysburg, Chickamauga and nearly all the other important battles of the war.

He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Clara L. Dowling, and six children, Clarence, Walter T., Edwin L., Wilfred S., Clara L., and Mrs. Mary E. Anderson. The funeral will be held from the family residence, 1150 Eighth street northeast, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Interment will be at Rock Creek cemetery.

PERMIT FOR A FENCE.

On account of sickness on the premises, a permit has been granted to Mrs. F. B. Harrison to erect, at her own expense, a wire fence around the parking at 2134 N street northwest, the fence not to remain longer than thirty days unless the permit is extended.

TEREE ADDED TO THE NEW ORLEANS LIST

ver in the city in midsummer, a thing which has never before been done.

Clergymen in the Fight.

The Rev. Dr. Beverly Warner led his congregation in prayer for relief yesterday, then put aside his priestly robes, donned a white duck suit, and a few moments after the benediction had been pronounced in Trinity Church was speeding through the infected districts of the city in an automobile. Other ministers have joined in the work and are making personal visits among their poorer parishioners and explaining to them the means of preventing infection.

The situation remains unchanged. The death rate in proportion to the number of cases is lower, but this is in part due to the fact that many of additional cases now discovered are in the better parts of the city. The health authorities are confident that their fight will be a successful one, but are unwilling to make any prophecies as to the time which it will take to stamp out the disease. All the detention camps are now in operation with the exception of that at Waveland, for the use of the Louisville and Nashville. Several efforts have been made by the Federal authorities to establish this at the people of that district have made strong objections.

Italians in a Panic.

The panic among the Italian people in the poorer quarters has increased, and they may be seen at all times of the day and night fleeing to other parts of the city. As fast as they are discovered they are forced to return to the district from which they came.

The board of health has issued a statement announcing that from the investigations which have been made it is probable that the disease has been in existence in the city since May, but that the delay in its discovery came from the fact that it was among an ignorant class of people, who seldom seek medical attention.

The discussion on the subject between Governor Blanchard of Louisiana, and Governor Vardaman, of Mississippi, is becoming warm, and each chief executive has made many unkind remarks about the other.

A new complication came today when Superintendent Curran, of the New Orleans and Northeastern railroad, announced that two passengers, who had remained the required length of time in the St. Louis detention camp and sought admission into Mississippi, had been turned back.

If Mississippi health authorities refuse admission to holders of certificates of detention issued by the Marine Hospital Service, the Government will abandon those camps, and travelers will have to either stay here or go to points in the north and east and spend ten days before they can go to Mississippi.

Loosing Banana Boats.

The Italian colony, which was engaged in unloading the banana steamers from Central America, are now out of work, and are suffering, as the banana ships all go to Mobile. The quarantine stations are less strict there than at New Orleans, and hence the diversion of the fruit trade from this city.

Stelle Cortelyou Another Victim of Panama Fever

The Panama Canal Commission today received a cable report from Governor Magoon of the death of Stelle Cortelyou, a typewriter employed in the auditing office at Panama. His home was at Muscotah, Kan.

The recovery of D. O. Lively, an American non-employee at Panama, was reported.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A True Statement About Riverdale

STATEMENTS of some overly excited residents to the effect that a very large number of serious cases of typhoid fever were prevalent in Riverdale, Md., have actuated the Riverdale Park Company, through their manager, Mr. Claude Warren, to make a rigid examination to ascertain the cause for such statements. Dr. J. G. A. Richardson, V. L. Perry, the leading physicians of Hyattsville; Dr. S. M. McMillan, and Dr. J. N. Gardner, resident physicians of Riverdale, have made statements in writing to the manager of the company, which statements submitted herewith tend to show that there is no need for undue excitement or alarm.

FORRESTVILLE, Md., July 30, 1935.

Mr. Claude Warren, Manager, Riverdale Park Co., Md.

Dear Sir:—In reply to your inquiry of recent date, and after making a more thorough examination as to the many reports regarding the typhoid in Riverdale, I wish to say that the town of Riverdale is far above the average village in Maryland and to me seems to be pretty healthy. I have been visiting the place for the past few days and have consulted with the physicians regarding the disease and find no cause for alarm. I think that the recent reports are all over an exaggeration of the typhoid fever in Riverdale. The health of Riverdale is above the average.

JOHN E. SANBURY, M. D., Health Officer.

HYATTSVILLE, Md., July 30, 1935.

Mr. Claude Warren, Manager, Riverdale Park Co., Riverdale, Md.

Dear Sir:—In reply to your inquiry relating to the prevalence of typhoid fever in Riverdale, and the general health of this locality, I wish to state that I have now seen a few cases of fever of a remittent type and see no reason why such reports of typhoid fever should cause currency. I have been practicing medicine in this locality for 30 years and have seen many cases of typhoid fever in Riverdale. The health of Riverdale is above the average.

HYATTSVILLE, Md., July 30, 1935.

Mr. Claude Warren, Manager, Riverdale Park Co., Riverdale, Md.

Dear Sir:—In reply to your recent date in regard to the so-called "Epidemic" of typhoid fever in Riverdale, I wish to state that I have now seen three cases of that disease in Riverdale—two of them in one house. I feel to see any cause for alarm in regard to the health of a town where the citizens show unusual care in regard to all necessary care of drainage and sewerage as they do in Riverdale. Yours respectfully,

V. L. PERRY, M. D.
